Date: Spring 2021

Our Learning Web this term:

Being a Historian

History

This is the subject that will drive our topic this term. We will be studying aspects of life in Anglo-Saxon Britain. This will include a glimpse into everyday life including cultural and religious beliefs. We will also link into geography to investigate mapwork of where Angles and Saxons came from. By the end of the unit of work the children will have a clearer idea of chronology and used timelines to help to place things in history.

Art

We're basing our art around Anglo-Saxon period this term. We will investigate some the knotwork associated with period and use this as inspiration for our designs. Through drawing, printing, and building models will be practising skills as well as finding out about art in history.

PE

We will be working outdoors as much as possible this term on a variety core stability, cross country and, later in the term, rugby. We will also be working on our skills in gymnastics when we cannot get outside.

Numeracy

We'll be continuing to practise skills using the addition and subtraction. We will also learn formal methods of multiplication and division as well as learning and practising multiplication tables and division facts. We will also learn about fractions and decimals and how they apply to our current knowledge.

Literacy

We will continue to develop our literacy skills through both fiction through story writing, non-fiction and poetry. We will look at some of the myths connected with Anglo-Saxon Britain, especially the infamous Beowulf. We will continue to develop daily reading skills practising fluency and diving into text analysis considering meaning and vocabulary choices.

Science

Our focus in science is Light and how we see things as well as learning out about sound and how we hear.

Our team in Rowan class:

Mrs Mortimer,
Mrs Scott and Mrs Mizon

RE

This term we return to unit of work on incarnation as we look at epiphany. We also return to our study of Judaism by looking back in more detail at Moses as a leading figure. As Easter approaches, we consider the question of 'Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?'

MFL

This term we practise our conversational Spanish and writing skills. As well as our core vocabulary we introduce the themes of animals and instruments into our vocabulary.

PHSE

Sex Education will focus on valuing differences, keeping safe and growing up.

DT

We're going to investigate what Anglo-Saxon homes were like and how they were made. We'll then design and build our own. We develop our skills with textiles by weaving.

Music

We learn a little about how music may have sounded during the Anglo-Saxon period of history and listen to music based on instruments of the time.
